Negotiations have been undertaken between the Fair Lawn Library Board of Trustees and the Fair Lawn Library Employees Group and

The matters under negotiations have been accepted by both parties to these negotiations, the undersigned representative of the parties to this document stipulate that agreement on the terms and conditions of employment have been reached and are hereto made a part of this Agreement.

It is hereby agreed that for the calendar years of 1989 and 1990:

1. All existing benefits and working conditions as outlined in staff manual shall be part of this contract. All prior contractual arrangements not codified into the staff manual shall remain in effect unless changed herein.
2. In 1989, the salary of each job title in the units represented by F.L.L.E.G. shall be increased by 7-1/4% on the base level and the salary for each job title in each unit shall be increased by 7-1/4% on each subsequent step of the salary guide.
3. In 1990, the salary of each job title in the units represented by F.L.L.E.G. shall be increased by 7-1/2% on the base level and the salary for each job title in each unit shall be increased by 7-1/2% on each subsequent step of the salary guide.

4. During each year of this Agreement, professional full-time employees shall receive 1-3/4 days vacation for each month worked, plus one day, to a maximum of 21 working days per year. Non-professional full-time employees shall receive 1-1/4 days vacation for each month worked, plus one day, to a maximum of 3 weeks plus 1 day for those with 0-4 years of service, and a maximum of 4 weeks, plus 1 day for those with 5 years or more.
5. During each year of this Agreement, all permanent part-time employees shall receive 4 weeks, plus 1 day, of vacation per year, paid on a pro rata basis, after five years of employment.
6. All permanent full-time employees shall have the option of receiving $75.00 every other year for any eye examination and other eye care to include glasses, contact lenses and follow-up visits. One half the eligible employees shall be entitled to this benefit each year. The Director will maintain the eligibility schedule; however, employees working full-time on video display terminals shall be entitled to this benefit each and every year. Employees working on a video display terminal less than full time, but for a considerable amount of time will be eligible for this benefit each and every year, at the discretion of the Director.

7. The clothing maintenance payment shall remain at $75.00 per annum. The clothing allowance, however, shall remain at $175.00 per annum, and shall be payable each July.
8. The Library shall continue to provide a prescription drug program to eligible staff during the term of this Agreement. The program shall provide the same benefits as the Borough of Fair Lawn's blue/white collar plan.
9. The current night differential shall be increased to forty-five cents per hour ($.45) effective January 1, 1989, and to fifty cents per hour ($.50) effective January 1, 1990.
10. The Board of Trustees and F.L.L.E.G. agree to enter into collective negotiations for a successor contract no later than September 15 of the year in which the contract expires. Negotiation meetings will be held on alternate weeks until agreement is reached or unless changed by mutual agreement.
11. This Agreement shall not be modified in whole or in part by the parties except by an instrument in writing executed only by both parties.
12. A photocopy of this contract will be given to each staff member and duplicated at library expense.

13. If any provision of this Agreement or any application of this Agreement to any employee or group of employees is held to be contrary to law, then such provision or application shall not be deemed valid and subsisting, except to the extent permitted by law, but all other provisions or applications shall continue in full force and effect.

14. This Agreement is retroactive to January 1, 1989, except where stated otherwise.
